Darkness Overtakes a Shuffling Tramp on Sunset Boulevard

It is democratic tradition that politics should leave the theater alone, but the off-stage career of Charles Chaplin gives point and emphasis to that other truth. The theater should stay out of politics. An Associated Press report this week rounded out the last chapter of the 40 years that Chaplin spent in our United States — 40 years in which he never once proposed to give up his British citizenship and become a voting American. This final chapter was an account of the sale of Chaplin's last U. S. property holdings, his famous old studio in Hollywood.

The studio brought $650,000 cash. Chaplin bought it back in 1918 for $35,000. Not a bad result — except for one thing: Chaplin himself is in Switzerland, exiled from our land because of an alien and suspect brand of personal politics. No American can tolerate the thought of applying the dictatorship rules of exile, persecution, or imprisonment against his fellow man solely because of what he may believe. But the cloak of democratic charity covers securely only American citizens. Chaplin, despite his 40 years' residence among us, at the end of the road was indistinguishable from many another foreigner who sought to live in our land but to speak up for foreign dictatorship.

I note in the AP dispatch that Chaplin said he left America voluntarily because "lies and vicious propaganda" handicapped his movie work. He may have left voluntarily, but the government gave him notice that he couldn't come back. And he left in his later films a clear record of how a peculiar political twist can ruin a great star of the theater.

When Chaplin built that studio at the corner of Sunset boulevard and La Brea avenue, back in 1918, Hollywood was young and "The Little Tramp" was her most famous figure. And in that studio he made his greatest films: "A Dog's Life," "Shoulder Arms," "The Kid," and "The Gold Rush."

But in his middle years Charles Chaplin forgot to be funny and started pointing up his pictures with a mission. He made "Modern Times," and it was a flop. "The Great Dictator" gave him a golden opportunity to ridicule Adolf Hitler — but Chaplin's original wit had become so corroded from his political twist that he couldn't bring it off, and "The Great Dictator" turned out to be simply tedious celluloid.

After that he went downhill rapidly, his last two pictures, "Monsieur Verdoux" and "Limelight," being complete failures.

Let politics stay out of the theater, for sure.

And, equally certain, the theater should stay out of politics. What is the great Chaplin finally turned out to be — imagining that a clown could turn the stage into a lecture hall!

Lemley Will Hear Dierks Case Oct. 12

HOPE (AP) — Federal Judge Harry Lemley said last night he would consider a motion to quash indictments against two former Bank of Dierks officials at the next session of Federal District Court in Texarkana.

The session is expected to open Oct. 12.

U. S. District Atty. Charles W. Atkinson said Wednesday he would file a motion asking that indictments against Thomas F. Westbrook, 73, former Bank of Dierks vice president, and 50-year-old Mrs. Opal Simmington, ex-assistant cashier, be dismissed.

The pair is charged in connection with a shortage on $173,000 in bank funds.

Atkinson said he wasn't sure that federal law violations were involved.

The case has been turned over to state authorities.

Livestock Show Is Nearing Final Stages

The Third District Livestock Show continued in full swing Friday with hundreds of students from all over this section filling the showgrounds during the afternoon for the annual school day.

The show is enjoying the largest crowds in its history.

All students were admitted free of charge and all rides and side-shows on the long midway reduced prices to nine cents until 6 p. m. A matinee performance of the rodeo was held at 3 p. m. for the students and another is slated for tonight at 8 o'clock.

Last night's rodeo performance played to a near-capacity crowd. The rodeo boasts the roughest stock ever to be brought to Hope and there are spills and thrills galore. Mingled with the rodeo are several acts which amaze the audience, one of the foremost being a trained dog act, some jumping horses and, of course, the usual clowning.

Playing at tonight's rodeo will be the Yerger High School band. The rodeo will give its final show Saturday night.

Meanwhile, judging is scheduled to be completed today with 4-H Club and FFA youths competing for honors. The fat calf show got underway at 2 p. m. followed by an auction.

Sex Terrorism Booms Dallas Gun Sales

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Public clamor for an end to Dallas' reign of sex terror rose today as gun sales boomed and talk of vigilante action increased.

The Negro rapist who Wednesday night killed a pretty dime store clerk—Mrs. H. C. Parker, 29—remained at large. Police reported no progress in efforts to nab a nude prowler whose bedroom raids left Dallas women terrified.

Police reported a flurry of minor sex crimes. Three women and four children reported sex offenders had accosted them. Police blamed the flurry on emotional excitement over the Parker slaying Wednesday night.

One Negro fondler was jailed and was to be questioned in the rape-slaying of Mrs. Parker. At Rylie, on the southeast outskirts of the city, Mrs. Louis Amos, 35, was scratched, cut and bruised by an assailant who finally fled, apparently frightened away by her screams.

Gun stores, locksmiths, dog pounds and kennels were doing a landslide business. Two "neighborhood vigilante patrols" were organized.

DIES IN ACCIDENT
OWYNE, Ark. (AP) — Robert Haynes, 23, of Colt, Ark., was killed near here yesterday when the car in which he was riding and another vehicle collided. Three others were injured seriously in the accident. T. P. Hale, 19, of near Wynne, was reported to be in a critical condition at a Memphis hospital. The other two, Raymond Maddox, 20, of Wynne, and Donald Rhodes, 23, of near Vandale, Ark., were hurt less seriously.

That Junior Is One Two Many

CAMP CHAFFEE (UP) A Rheobobo, Ala., had education officers at this Army post flabbergasted when he enrolled for a course in basic education.

The soldier gave his name as Junior Irby Junior.

A perplexed clerk asked him what was his father's name?

"Senior Irby Junior," the GI replied.

The clerk pressed further with "Any brothers, sisters?"

The soldier answered, "One brother, Senior Irby Junior, Junior."

The clerk asked what to press things any further.

No Right-Way, Commies Start New French Strikes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Highway Director Herbert Eldridge said today that five proposed road improvement projects have been dropped by the Highway Commission because local interests have made no move to furnish the right-of-ways.

The suspended projects by counties:

Mississippi — Improvement of Highway 18 adjacent to Blytheville for two miles, estimated cost of $180,000.

Lawrence — Addition of a second lane from Walnut Ridge east to the Greene County line on Highway 25, a distance of 10 miles. $290,000.

Jefferson — Rehabilitation of Highway 79 from Pine Bluff south for 6.4 miles, $146,000.

Bradley and Calhoun — Construction of five new bridges on highway 4 between Harrell and Warren, $343,000.

Calhoun and Dallas — Widening of Highway 79 and 104 between Thornton and Fordyce, $300,000.

The commission committed itself on June 25 to carry out the proposed improvements if it were assured within 60 days that right-of-ways free of fences, dwellings and other obstructions would be furnished without cost to the state.

Eldridge said local interests had made no move to meet the conditions or to ask for time extensions.

Similar offers made at the June meeting and before have been accepted or still are pending under extensions of the acceptance period.

Today's announcement is in accord with the Commission's controversial procedure of giving priority for construction to sections where it gets free right-of-ways.

The commission could reinstate any or all of the suspended projects if it should see fit.

Commies Start New French Strikes

PARIS (UP) — A new wave of Communist-led strikes hit railroads and communications throughout France today and the Reds threatened nationwide walkouts.

The work stoppages were reported part of a Communist master plan to harass the government of Premier Joseph Laniel. Laniel was hard pressed by the August general strike which paralyzed the nation for more than three weeks.

The Communist-dominated General Labor Confederation (CGT) called out thousands of workers on all rail lines serving southeastern France today.

The 24-hour strike began at 8 o'clock last night in Paris and at midnight in the provinces.

The strike was only partially effective during the early morning hours. Non-Communist workers stayed on the job and were reinforced by trainment shifted from other lines.

Suburban commuter service was almost completely halted at one of Paris' six main stations and international trains were running up to three hours behind schedule.

Indian Guards Kill Two More Prisoners

By FRANK JORDAN

PANMUNJOM, Korea (UP) — Indian guards killed two more anti-Communist war prisoners today, drawing angry threats of "prompt action" from the South Korean government.

The Indian troops fired into a mob of 300 Chinese prisoners, fatally wounding the two Communist-hating captives. Five more Chinese were wounded by bullets and clubs.

Demonstrations by prisoners resisting return to communism have led to at least three deaths of captives. Altogether, the Indians have wounded 10 men.

The deaths brought stringently worded criticism from President Syngman Rhee's government, which has contended that India is a pro-Communist nation which would favor the Reds in handling of prisoners.

Dr. Hong Ke Karl, Rhee's spokesman, charged the prisoners proved the Indians are not competent guards and warned their methods are "leading to virtually a forced repatriation."

Karl said South Korea will take "prompt action to prevent the Indians from further killing our citizens."

The South Korean assembly adopted a resolution calling for an investigation of the incidents.

Karl said Korea "from the very beginning... had expressed a deep doubt as to the capability of the Indians to guarantee a free atmosphere and safety for the non-repatriates."

"Now, more than ever, we consider the Indians are not compatible with their assigned duty of safeguarding the lives of anti-Communists," Karl said.

More Offer Help in Repairing Youth Center

The Youth Center received another boost toward its repair campaign this week by a very worthy contribution from the Hope Lions Club along with further offers of time and labor from carpenters and painters.

Offering labor were Cliff Billings, Horace Billings, John Stark and Clyde Fritz.

The Youth Center is also grateful to the public for the patronage given them at their parking lot on the Little League Baseball grounds.

Longshoremen Idle Pending Legal Action

By ROBERT ZIMMERMAN

NEW YORK (UP) — The state of New York and the American Federation of Labor joined forces from stronghold of crime-riddled longshoremen's union during an 80-day Taft-Hartley truce.

President Eisenhower invoked the Taft-Hartley law yesterday and the action is expected to send 65,000 striking dockworkers back to work next week. The strike started at midnight Wednesday.

Ships lay idle in ports from Portland, Me., to Norfolk, Va., but leaders of the striking International Longshoremen's Association promised to send the men back to work the moment they receive notice of a Taft-Hartley law injunction.

The President's emergency board was ordered to begin hearings here tomorrow and report to him by Monday midnight in the first step toward obtaining the no-strike injunction and its 80-day truce, which could follow quickly.

From there on, the dispute promises to be one of the strangest ever under the law.

West Believes Reds Trying to Prevent Meet

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Western diplomats said today Russia may be trying to torpedo proposals for a big power meeting on German unification now because her position in Germany is weak.

This idea was advanced as one possible, even probable, explanation for the note which Russia delivered to the Western Powers earlier this week. The note made curious demands and accusations in connection with the Western proposal for a foreign ministers' conference, Switzerland.

The State Department labeled the Soviet note "evasive," and said the Russians were using "dilatory tactics."

The Soviets made acceptance of "the legal rights" of Red China in such efforts.

MOVIE - OF - THE - WEEK

FRONTIERMAN Miles Archer (Guy Madison) and Sgt. Baker (Frank Lovejoy) lead a surprise raid to rescue two white women held captive by the Cheyennes. They flee with the Indians in pursuit and casualties mount as the Redskins pick them off.

SURROUNDED. Archer's troopers make a brave stand at Feather River. Anne (Helen Westcott), one of girls, does truly heroic work tending the victims of the war-whopping Cheyennes now massed for the big assault. Baker manages to get through for help.

CHEYENNE CHIEF Thunder Hawk, in a deadly knife duel with Archer, is killed, sending his warriors into retreat as cavalry reinforcements arrive. Archer convinces Anne that any man would be proud to call so brave a woman his wife.

GOPs Won't Get Involved on T-H Law

By JACK BELL

And NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Republican places on the Senate Labor Committee are going begging, apparently because GOP senators are reluctant to get involved in any new Taft-Hartley law controversy.

President J. Eisenhower, meanwhile, has opportunity to comment at his new conference today on former Secretary of Labor Martin Durkin's action in the President broke his word on supporting Taft-Hartley law changes.

The White House has denied there was any agreement, but there has been no direct comment from the President since then. Eisenhower also faced possible questioning on the choice of a successor to Durkin, who resigned Sept. 10.

The chairman of the Senate Labor Committee to be filled when Congress meets again include those named by the death of Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) and the expected transfer of Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.) to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Chairman J. H. Alexander (R-N.J.) carried 4 in an interview he is having trouble lining up Republicans to fill out the usual 7-6 margin of his party over the Democrats on the labor group.

HIS PLAN

How often shall I forgive? Peter thought he was generous when he forgave three times, since that is what the Jewish clergy required. But when Jesus said "seventy times seven," it exploded like a bomb-shell. Peter thought God should be proud of him. Seven is 233% of three. But Peter didn't know God; nor do we. Most men cannot believe how far the love of God will go. Seventy times seven means there is no end to God's forgiveness. As often as we sincerely confess, God will fully forgive. Little narrow souls can't realize how generously God forgives. "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors," is a dangerous prayer unless we forgive as Jesus did. He who forgives is victor. Seventy Times Seven, means the best way to "get even" is to forget.
